

House Resolution No. 1301

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Christine Mathews of Weston, Missouri, is to be commended for her participation in the 2005 Leadership Northland Class; and

Whereas, listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, Christine Mathews is an exemplary student at her school where she excels in her studies and maintains an impressive G.P.A. while participating in a wide variety of extracurricular activities; and

Whereas, Christine Mathews is an active member of the Weston community where she is involved in Special Olympics, the Shaloam Workers House, the March of Dime's Bowl-a-thon, and Hillcrest Ministries Homeless Shelters; and

Whereas, a talented member of the Volleyball 2nd Team who is All District and All Conference, Christine Mathews is a devout member of her church where she serves as a Sunday School Teacher and Altar Server; and

Whereas, a youth mentor and 2004-2005 Platte County 4-H Senior Ambassador, Christine Mathews is the proud recipient of several awards and honors including the 4-H "I Dare You" Leadership Award; and

Whereas, Christine Mathews has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of her proud parents, John and Lorienne Mathews; and her three sisters, Sarah, Molly, and Mariah:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Christine Mathews at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Christine Mathews, as a mark of our esteem for her.
